180 | TEQUILA BOOKWORM VILLAGE BY THE RAIL (SERIES 1) JOHN MESTITO

MAY 1 - 27
OPENING MAY 4, 7 - 10PM
Manila has an estimated four million people living in temporary settlements. Settlements are characterized by deteriorated, hazardous and unsanitary dwellings and are usually located near garbage dumps, rivers, bridges and railroad tracks. The Philippine National Railway in Manila and the people who call it home are the subject of this series. In association with the Filipino Student Association of Toronto, 50 percent of exhibition proceeds will be donated to mudslide victims in central Philippines.

181 | THOMPSON LANDRY GALLERY INOX: ELEMENTS NICOLAS RUEL

APR 26 - MAY 20
OPENING APR 26, 6 - 10PM
A world-class exhibition of Ruel's photographs printed on stainless steel will be held in the 8,000-square-foot Fermenting Cellar at the Distillery District through May 1 and at Thompson Landry Gallery until May 20. This body of work consists of large-format images exploring the relationship between the four elements (earth, air, fire and water), portraits of locations around the world and abstract or minimalist images. Curated by Joanne Thompson and Sylvain Landry.

OBJECTS IN MIRROR ARE CLOSER THAN THEY APPEAR HEIDI TAILLEFER

MAY 15 - 31
THE CONSTRUCTED IMAGE
This photo-roman exhibition of 28 pieces is an exploration of suffering and release following the Buddhist principles of detachment and disidentification. Each image was altered through traditional painting in order to convey that which would not be possible in its originally photographed form. Curated by Joanne Thompson and Sylvain Landry.

182 | THRUSH HOLMES EMPIRE PRETTY PICTURES JOSHUA JENSEN-NAGLE

APR 25 - MAY 27
OPENING MAY 3, 7 - 10PM
Pretty Pictures is a series of landscapes taken on different trips over the past year, an accumulation of scenes I've encountered and a glimpse into what I find interesting out there. When photographing landscapes I never have a plan, action or intent but rather let my eyes do the work. The work is a reflection of what inspires me in our landscape. Exhibition held in conjunction with Edward Day Gallery, 952 Queen St W.

183 | TORONTO DOMINION BANK TOWER STREET HEALTH STORIES KENEISHA, JESS, MEGHAN, ADRIENNE

MAY 1 - 11
OPENING MAY 3, 5 - 7:30PM
This photo and sound installation explores the issue of how people take care of their health when they don't have a home. This was asked of 28 people living on the street, as part of a citywide survey conducted by Street Health, St. Michael's Hospital and the NFB's filmmaker-in-residence. Four women photographers who've all had experiences with homelessness document the people and their stories through sound and portrait photography, giving a human face to statistics. Curated by Kat Cizek and Heather Frise.

MAY 2 - JUL 4
OPENING MAY 2, 5 - 7PM
THE CONSTRUCTED IMAGE
Quebec City artist Annie Baillargeon's surrealistic works evoke images of synchronized swimmers from old Hollywood films. Nicholas Knight of Long Island City, New York, will show installation work that is recreated for each new space. The ghostly figures of Osheen Harruthoonyan give pause to the darker side of our psyche. Jenna Edwards' constructed cityscapes are "simulations" of Toronto. Montreal's Elena Willis explores the complexity of the subconscious mind through her dreams. Curated by jury.

STEPHEN D'AGOSTINO
MAY 3 - 28
THE CONSTRUCTED IMAGE
Traditional photography documents life in fractions of a second. Life, however, is experienced as a collection of moments; moments we want to preserve. This collection of photo-impressionistic images relies on in-camera multiple exposures and digital montage to capture moments as they occur, fleeting, changing and elusive. The images transcend the object fixed in time and focus on the rhythm of chance, harmonizing motion, power and beauty. Curated by Rita Tsiotsikas.
